

When you don't have the right credential on your business card.

But it's definitely on your mind.

Enhance your career and shape your profession through ACMPE board certification and the Certified Medical Practice Executive (CMPE) credential.

Steps to your CMPE credential:

STEP ONE: QUALIFY AND APPLY

- Have two years of healthcare management experience with six months in a supervisory role
- Be a current MGMA member
- Pay a one-time application fee

Note: Starting January 1, 2019, a bachelor's degree or 120 college credit hours will be required.

STEP TWO: ASSESS AND BUILD KNOWLEDGE

- Pass a multiple-choice exam
- Pass a scenario-based exam
- Earn 50 continuing education (CE) credit hours

Note: CE can be earned 30 days prior to program acceptance, during exam preparation and after passing the exams.

STEP THREE: MAINTAIN YOUR CREDENTIAL

- Submit 50 CE hours every three years
- Remain an MGMA member
